

Murali Mohan

Murali Mohan was born in Andhra Pradesh in 1940. His father was a freedom fighter. Before finishing college education he started his own business. As an aside he used to participate in stage plays.

He entered into movie in 1973 with the film "Jagame Maya". The movie didn't work but Dasari Narayana Rao, another director, was impressed. He cast him in his next film, "Thirupathi". Dasari and Murali Mohan were collaborated in 40 plus movies. By one estimate Mohan acted in over 350 films.

Murali Mohan established his own company and made over 25 films. He also appeared in television shows. After quitting show business he ventured into real estate and became enormously successful.

Murali Mohan opened a charitable trust fund to help needy students pursuing degrees in engineering and medicine. Thus far the fund has helped over 1000 students.

The following are some of the movies in which Murali Mohan was associated with Savithri...

1. Rambha Urvashi Menaka (1977)
2. Prema Paga (1978)
3. Naa Illu Naa Vallu (1979)
4. Ramayanam Lo Pidakala Veta (1980)
5. Sujatha (1980)